Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Manual on Fire Protection for Railroad Properties: For the Use and Information of Fire Protection Inspectors 1. All officers and employees of railroads should be on guard at all times, show their loyalty and cooperation, and through earnest efforts and constant vigilance accept their responsibility toward the elimination of the unnecessary fire loss to railroad properties. 2. Let each employee consider himself a fire inspector or warden, as far as his particular duties are concerned and in so far as any dangerous condition may come to his notice; and let each one have in mind constantly that through no act of his, or through no lack of action on his part, will he create a fire hazard or allow one to pass unnoticed. 3. If you know of or see a fire danger or hazard, report it immediately to your superior in charge of your department. 4. Keep in mind constantly that the first requisite in the prevention of fire waste is good housekeeping - meaning cleanliness. Remove accumulations of rubbish and waste, and...
