No snowstorm was going to keep Kaylee Brinkerhoff from her Nana's for Christmas! She had never been wrong about a prompting before and this one was a strong one! Snow or no snow--she would make it to Flagstaff, Arizona and her grandmother's house! Chad expected a quiet, lonely Christmas, so he was surprised when a half-frozen woman burst through the door of the cabin. He was even more surprised when the woman turned out to be the beautiful grand-daughter of Martha Swenson, the owner of the cabin. Kaylee was surprised to find a handsome stranger in her Nana's home. Where was she? It was almost Christmas Eve. What about decorating the tree? What about delivering her secret gift baskets? Why didn't she tell someone she was leaving town? Chad couldn't believe his luck! He had a few short days to convince the girl of his dreams that he was the best Christmas present she could ever get in her whole life! He had to create the most romantic Christmas ever and show her he was what Christmas dreams were made of.
