If it is, then I think anybody ought to be able to compete regardless of where their historical roots are. Thank you. Thanks, Mr. McCrery. I appreciate your candor. Mr. M C. Thank you. C RERY OMBO Chairman P. Further questions Mr. Kind. IND Mr. K. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chairman, I do want to thank you and the Ranking Member and members of this com-mittee for holding this very important hearing. Obviously from Wisconsin with many of the nations located in my State, this is an issue that does come up with quite regularity, some initiated by the tribes themselves as far as off-gaming reservation opportunities, some being initiated by local communities who are dealing with high chronic unemployment, economic development issues, trying to stimulate the economic activity in their own area, and they are looking to some of the success that has occurred with some of the nations within Wisconsin to help generate some economic develop-ment plans. So this hearing, again, from multiple view points, I think can be very helpful for our committee as we wrestle with off-gaming res-ervation issues, and there is a law in place, IGRA 88, that sets forth the process or the procedure for moving from FITA trust and setting up these type of opportunities for sovereign nations that exist within our own country. Just for a point of clarification, I thank my colleague from...
