Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt: . . . 11 ESL GED Classes - Parent literacy opportunities are made available through the Project. GEAR UP collaborates with the Educational Service Center and local school districts to support their parent literacy programs. Parent and Student Engagement - The GEAR UP Family and Community Out-reach Coordinator is always looking for opportunities to provide parent training through meaningful and exciting ways. Many times a student event is that perfect opportunity ! The parent will attend the event with their child and as their child is receiving training in matters such as which classes to take in high school, the par-ent is receiving training on the benefits of a pre-AP or AP curriculum. The GEAR UP Project, the university and other local colleges have held such events. A Career Extravaganza was held recently in which approximately 1, 200 students received information about career awareness, taking the appropriate high school courses and were given opportunities to explore the different majors available to them in college. Parents also attended the Career Extravaganza and received training from GEAR UP and university personnel regarding parental involvement in post-secondary institutions, financial aid planning and the understanding high school credits. Parents are also invited to listen to motivational speakers throughout the year to assist in reinforcing the message at home about making good grades and making plans to attend college. Our GEAR UP parents have also attended and assisted with community service activities with their children to better...
