

Running the Race, Keeping the Faith: Reflections on My First Fifty Years

By Denise L Majette

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From her childhood in Brooklyn, New York, to law practice in North Carolina; from a judgeship in Stone Mountain, Georgia, to the halls of United States Congress, author Denise L. Majette has been Running the Race, Keeping the Faith. As a short, chubby, shy black girl born during America's civil rights era, she dreamed big dreams. Through preparation, perseverance, and prayer, believing all things are possible with God, she worked to make them come true. In forty reflective chapters celebrating her fiftieth birthday, Majette the lawyer, judge, member of Congress, U.S. Senate nominee, wife, mother, and New York City Marathon runner tells the story of her Christian faith journey. Through biblical quotations and her original writings, she shares her insights and life lessons on relationships, religion, politics, and winning the race we call life from 1955 to 2005.
